

COMMUNITY SCHOOL OF THE ARTS

Summer Session June 1-July 10, 2009

Music and Art programs for children and adults

MUSIC

All programs scheduled in the Music/Mass Communication Building.

Individual Music Instruction. Students receive one-on-one instruction for 30 minutes each week. Lessons available on cello, flute, guitar, percussion, piano, trumpet, violin or voice. Lessons are scheduled weekday afternoons and evenings, 6 lessons in the summer session.

- ❖ Ages: 4 and up for violin lessons
7 and up for guitar, piano and other instruments
13 and up for voice
Adults are welcome as beginners or continuing students in all areas.
- ❖ Fees: $120 – 6 week summer session.

Class Voice. Desiree Dolan, instructor. Group instruction for ages 15 and older in the techniques used to develop and improve the singing voice. Class will meet once per week for one hour, day/time TBA. Fee: $70.

Drum Circle. Carlos Johnson, director. A great opportunity for students and adults, with or without experience, to participate in a performing group made up of percussion instruments. Rehearsals will include music for hand drums as well as pieces performed on household items (pots and pans, brooms, etc.). Class will meet once per week for one hour, day/time TBA. Fee: $70.

APSU Piano Week. Piano Week is an opportunity to enjoy piano lessons, master classes and supervised practice with Austin Peay professors. Improve your ensemble and sight-reading skills, spend time with other high school pianists and prepare a piece for recital. This week of intensive study is designed to inspire students to pursue their pianistic studies beyond high school. Younger applicants also may be considered with teacher recommendation. 9 a.m.-3 p.m., June 15-19. Fee: $100 plus $25 registration fee. Contact the CSA or Professor Anne Glass, glassa@apsu.edu (931) 221-7635, for information.

VISUAL ARTS

All programs scheduled in the Trahern Building.

Individual Art Instruction. Students receive one-on-one instruction for 30 minutes each week. Lessons are scheduled weekday afternoons and evenings, 6 lessons in the summer session. Fees: $120 – 6 week summer session.

Ceramics – ages 15 and older. Melody Shipley, instructor. A beginner's level course that covers the introduction to both hand-built vessels and the beginning use of the potter's wheel. Students begin with hand building which affords familiarity with the material and techniques, then move to wheel throwing. 6-8 p.m., Thursdays. Fee: $120 plus $20 materials.

Introduction to Digital Photography – ages 15 and older. Instruction in use and functions of students' digital cameras, and how to edit, print, and scan photographs. Class will meet once per week for two hours, day/time TBA. Fee: $135.

Painting with Watercolors – ages 8-14. Morgan Conwell, instructor. Classes to gain familiarity with drawing and watercolor techniques. Class will meet once per week for one hour, day/time TBA. Fee: $80.

Open Registration begins Monday, May 4
Current students register through Saturday, May 2.

To register: Call the Community School of the Arts: (931) 221-7508
or email: csa@apsu.edu

Please visit our Web site at www.csa.apsu.edu

Community School of the Arts
Austin Peay State University
PO Box 4625
Clarksville, TN 37044