

Application for Fresh Start

Please read the following requirements and restrictions before applying for the Fresh Start Program:

- This application must be submitted during the first term of admission or readmission to Austin Peay. It is to be reviewed by the Dean of the college in which you are majoring and the Office of the Registrar before Fresh Start is applied after the completion of 15 semester hours of credit (see below).

- You must have been out of higher education for a minimum of four years.

- You must enroll at Austin Peay and complete 15 semester hours of credit (excluding Developmental Studies classes)* with a grade point average (GPA) of at least 2.00 in all courses taken following your absence, in addition to a GPA of at least 2.00 in degree credits (excluding Developmental Studies classes) in the same time period.

- All college credits and grades earned before the separation period will be forfeited. The courses and grades will remain on the transcript, be noted appropriately, and be removed from the GPA calculation and degree requirements.

- Permission for Fresh Start will only be granted once.

- Courses affected by Fresh Start are not honored by Veterans Administration for benefits.

*Fresh Start calculates the GPA and credit hours toward graduation on course work beginning with the credits taken following the absence.
