

APSU Apollo

Wednesday, Oct. 28

7-10 p.m.

Clement Auditorium

Registration due to SLL by Wednesday, Oct. 21 at 4 p.m.

This program has been designed as an opportunity for the APSU community to showcase its diverse talents! Sign up to demonstrate your unique abilities, such things as singing, dancing, doing skits, comedy, performing spoken-word, performing magic, playing an instrument, etc. The top three performers will receive a prize with first place receiving $200, second place receiving $100 and third place receiving $50. Judges will determine winners based on crowd applause. If your act needs musical accompaniment, be sure to bring him a CD with the music on it! Come out and support entertainment for Austin Peay, by Austin Peay!

*All performers are required to attend the dress rehearsal. Performers must abide by the following guidelines. Failure to do so will result in immediate disqualification.

1. Performers may not use vulgar or inappropriate language or gestures.
2. Performers must be at Clement Auditorium for their assigned dress rehearsal time beginning at 4 p.m.
3. Performances must be no more than 8 minutes in length.
4. Performers must provide any needed musical accompaniment on CD.

*Use the applicaton found at the end of this packet to participate.

Registration on second page.

APSU APOLLO ENTRY FORM

Please fill out this form and return it to Student Life and Leadership UC 211 or email to cragwalll@apsu.edu by 4 p.m., Wednesday, October 21, 2009.

Name: _____

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____

Organization you are representing (if applicable): _____

*You must attend the dress rehearsal before the show in order to be able to perform. Dress Rehearsal will be held from 4 p.m.-6 p.m. on the day of the show (10/28). You will be assigned a rehearsal time based on your availability.

Please list any time conflicts that you may have due to class or work:

Please describe your intended performance in detail:
