

AUSTIN PEAY STATE UNIVERSITY

Sponsored by

APSU Academic Affairs, Office of Grants and Sponsored Research, College of Graduate Studies

Graduate Student Research and Creative Activity Extravaganza Application

Please use word processor or print clearly:

Date: _____

Name: _____ ID #: A _____

Email: _____ Phone number(s): _____

Address: _____

Title of Research/Creative Activity: _____

Extravaganza Category: _____

College and Department: _____

*Department Chair's Name/Signature _____
Name Signature

*The Department Chair's signature signifies that the project is complete and appropriate for the category to which it has been submitted.

Application Submission:

- Application Deadline: Thursday, February 25, 2010
- Application (on the next page) should be e-mailed or sent through APSU Campus Mail to:
Dr. Dixie Dennis (dennisdi@apsu.edu)
Interim Director, Grants and Sponsored Research,
MCR 108, APSU Box 4517

Eligibility for Extravaganza Participation: APSU graduate student

Extravaganza Categories:

- Creative Arts and Literature Expression (e.g., musical compositions, musical performances, literary works, audio and video presentations, website designs...)
- Completed Data-based Research—not necessarily yet defended (a completed research project with an abstract, introduction, method, results, discussion, and references.)
- Non-Empirical Research (In this type of research, no data are collected. APSU Plan I or Plan II is appropriate as defined in the student's discipline.)
-

In observance of the Governor's Proclamation, and as per guidelines from the Tennessee Colleges of Graduate Studies regarding Graduate Education Week, the winner of the Data-Based Research division will be sent to Nashville April 7, 2010 to showcase his/her work at Legislative Plaza in Nashville, TN.