Summary of Regulations Governing Undergraduate Pass-Fail Registration Refer to current University Bulletin

1. You may not register on Pass-Fail for courses which are in your core requirements, major, and minor fields.
2. You must be a full-time student exclusive of any Pass-Fail registrations.
3. You may not register for Pass-Fail courses if you are on academic probation.
4. You must have earned at least 24 semester hours of collegiate credit exclusive of remedial/developmental credits.
5. You are limited to one course per semester/term.
6. No student will be permitted to earn more than 12 semester hours with grades of Pass in a degree program.
7. You must earn a grade of C or better to receive a Pass, else a Fail grade will be posted.
8. Procedure for Pass-Fail courses will be to register in the regular manner on registration days. During the Drop-Add period, as printed in the Schedule of Classes, come to the Office of the Registrar and sign this form requesting conversion to Pass-Fail. This conversion is not subject to be changed to the original registration at a later date. It is irrevocable.
9. When taking a required physical education core course on a Pass-Fail basis, use a Physical Education Pass-Fail Card.
