

PASS Students Spring 2009	Average Fall 08 GPA	Average Spring 09 GPA	% Increase or Decrease in Ave Term GPA	Percent of Students with GPA Increase	Percent of Students Suspended Spring 09	Percent of Students Returning Fall 09
PASS Participants Completers: (n=27)	1.05	2.09	99% increase	23/27 =85%	33%	22/27=81.5%
PASS Participants but Non-Completers: (n=17)	1.09	0.92	16% decrease	5/17 =29%	77%	4/17 = 23.5%
Required PASS Participants (Susp. Appeal) No participation (n=23)	0.68	0.62	9% decrease	8/23 =35%	91%	2/23=8.7%
Invited PASS Participants (Freshmen on Probation and Condi Admit) No participation (n=149)	1.19	1.41	18.5% increase	82/149=55%	37%
Invited PASS students (Returning after Setting out a Suspension) No participation (n=36)	0.34	1.42	318% increase	23/36 =64%	53%

- ✚ Students successfully appealing their academic suspension Spring 2009 were required to participate in the PASS Program. However, when the Program was piloted in Spring 2009, Title III did not have the ability to enforce participation. Therefore, many of these students either did not complete the program or did not participate at all. Other students were invited to participate in the program: Freshmen placed on probation, conditionally admitted students and students returning from setting out a suspension.
- ✚ 27 students successfully completed the program and earned a Certificate of Completion.
 - The average term GPA for this group of student went from 1.05 Fall 2008 to 2.09 Spring 2009, an average increase of 99%.
 - 23 of these 27 students (85%) had an increase in their GPA from Fall 2008 to Spring 2009.
 - Only 33% of these 27 students were placed on academic suspension at the end of Spring 2009.
- ✚ 17 students completed some of the PASS Program activities, but did not complete the program.
 - The average term GPA for this group of students went from 1.09 Fall 2008 to 0.92 Spring 2009, an average decrease of 16%.
 - Only 5 of these 17 students (29%) had an increase in their GPA from Fall 2008 to Spring 2009.
 - 77% of these 17 students were placed on academic suspension at the end of Spring 2009.
- ✚ 23 students were required to participate in the program but did not.
 - The average term GPA for this group of students went from 0.68 Fall 2008 to 0.62 Spring 2009, an average decrease of 9%.
 - Only 8 of these 23 students (35%) had an increase in their GPA from Fall 2008 to Spring 2009.
 - 91% of these 23 students were placed on academic suspension at the end of Spring 2009.

- ✚ 149 students, freshmen placed on probation and conditionally admitted students, were invited to participate in the program, but did not.
 - The average term GPA for this group of students went from 1.19 Fall 2008 to 1.41 Spring 2009, an average increase of 18.5%.
 - 82 of these 149 students (55%) had an increase in their GPA from Fall 2008 to Spring 2009.
 - 37% of these 149 students were placed on academic suspension at the end of Spring 2009.
- ✚ 36 students returning to the university after setting out a suspension were invited to participate in the program, but did not.
 - The average term GPA for this group of students went from 0.34 to 1.42, an average increase of 318%.
 - 23 of these 36 students (64%) had an increase in their GPA from their previous semester to Spring 2009.
 - 53% of these 36 students were placed on academic suspension again Spring 2009.

Observations:

- ✚ PASS completers were the only students who brought their average term GPA above 2.00.
- ✚ PASS completers had a higher percentage of students who raised their GPA (85%) than any other group.
- ✚ Far fewer students were suspended again in Spring 2009 if they had completed the PASS program (33%) than student who participated but did not complete the program (77%) or students who did not participate at all (91%)
- ✚ Students who were readmitted after being placed on suspension and DID NOT set out their suspension, and DID NOT complete the PASS Program had a decrease (9-16%) in their average term GPA for Spring, while students returning from a suspension who DID set out a semester or longer had a large increase (318%) in their average term GPA for Spring 2009. However the average GPA only went from 0.34 Fall 2008 to 1.42 Spring 2009.