Who & What is Two-Spirit

What Do You Mean Two-Spirit Doesn't Simply Mean an LGBTQ+ Indigenous Person?

PRESENTERS:

Chase Bryer is Chickasaw, Two-Spirit, and a current doctoral student in Behavioral and Social Health Sciences at Brown University School of Public Health.

Jac Ford is Mi'kmaq and British from Kraqmkuk and is a non-binary, Two-Spirit/Indigqueer resident physician at University of British Columbia's Public Health and Preventive Medicine program.

Cameron Carley is a queer non-binary Japanese student doing a Master of Arts in educational research with a specialization in curriculum learning at the University of Calgary.

Harlan Pruden is nehiyó/First Nations Cree and works with and for the Two-Spirit community locally, nationally, and internationally.

MODERATOR:

Heather Tillewein is an Assistant Professor at Austin Peay State University and serves as Communications Chair for the LGBTQ Health Caucus for the American Public Health Association.

Mt. Olive Cemetery Tour & Headstone Cleaning

On March 15, 2023, students in HHP 3450: Health Issues of Special Populations toured Mt. Olive Cemetery, one of Clarksville's largest and oldest African American Burial Grounds. They also cleaned several of the headstones.

ESG Welcomes NEW Initiates

Eta Sigma Gamma
Epsilon Tau Chapter
Initiation Ceremony

The APSU Chapter of Eta Sigma Gamma, the public health honorary, will welcome a new class of initiates with a ceremony on March 25th at 2 pm in the Art + Design Building.

In order for students to be considered for ESG, they must be Public Health undergraduate or graduate student in HHP at APSU, have earned a grade point average of at least 2.75, and have completed at least two semesters of college coursework by the end of the spring 2023 semester.

Public health faculty and current ESG members look forward to welcoming this new class at the ceremony.

APSU Student Spotlight : Teiya Byles & Carla Augustin

Teiya Byles

Congratulations to public health students, Carla Augustin & Teiya Byles, on being selected as truth® College Leaders! truth® College Leaders are students at grant-funded colleges and universities who develop and lead educational and advocacy activities to build a movement to become a tobacco/vape-free campus. Be on the lookout for upcoming truth® communications from Carla and Teiya, and please reach out to Claudia Alonzo if you're interested in volunteering at truth® events in the future alonzoc@apsu.edu.
