

APPLICATION FOR THE HAMEL SCHOLARSHIP IN MATHEMATICS

The Hamel Scholarship was established in 2002 by Dr. Thomas Hamel, professor in the Department of Mathematics and Computer Science, and his wife Nancy. The $500 scholarship is awarded annually to an entering freshman or transfer student majoring in mathematics who has shown outstanding potential. Please mail the following application form, along with an official high school transcript and two letters of recommendation (one from your mathematics teacher and one from another teacher or counselor).

Name _____ Grade _____ Social Security Number _____

Mailing Address _____

High School Name: _____ Address: _____

ACT Scores: Mathematics _____ Composite _____

High School GPA _____ GPA in Mathematics _____

What is your major area of interest in mathematics? _____

List the mathematics courses you have taken in high school or college _____

List of high school activities and/or club memberships: _____

Please write a paragraph concerning your career goals. You may use a separate sheet of paper.

Please mail application to:

Mathematics Department
P. O. Box 4626
Austin Peay State University
Clarksville, TN 37044

If you have questions please contact:

Shirley Hagewood, Associate Professor of Mathematics
Scholarship Committee Chairman
Austin Peay State University
e-mail: hagewoods@apsu.edu
Phone: 931-221-7813 or 931-221-7833