

Accidents and injuries

University Recreation and Austin Peay State University are not liable for injuries or losses sustained through participation in intramural activities. University Recreation strongly recommends that all participants have proper medical coverage. Information regarding student health insurance can be found at Student Health Services in Ellington 104 (221-7107). Serious or potentially serious injuries should be treated as soon as possible at Student Health Services.

New to Intramural Sports

This fall, Intramural Sports will offer Greek leagues. The leagues are open to all IFC/NPHC/NPC fraternities at APSU. Organizations can earn points for the All Greek Championship by participating in every event. The top two Greek teams in each sport will have an opportunity to play for the overall sport championship. Participation is limited to one team per fraternity.

About Intramural Sports

Intramural Sports provides competitive and noncompetitive recreational activities for all Austin Peay State University students, faculty and staff.* Intramural Sports is part of University Recreation and is located in the Foy Fitness and Recreation Center. The program is divided into competitive activities, featuring men's, women's and co-rec divisions as well as leagues in Greek, competitive or recreation in team sports such as flag football, soccer, softball, basketball, volleyball, etc., as well as individual intramural activities, including spades and billiards.

*Alumni patrons may participate in individual/dual sports.

How to enter in an intramural event

1. Fill out an official entry form, which can be picked up in the Intramural Office or online at <http://www.apsu.edu/recreation/im/info.aspx>.
2. Entry fees can be paid at the front desk of the Foy Fitness and Recreation Center.
3. Turn in the entry form by the deadline date and attend the participants' meeting.

Completed entry forms with payment must be submitted to the Intramural Office on or before 5 p.m. of entry deadline.

Eligibility

All currently enrolled APSU students, faculty and staff, as well as Fort Campbell students who have paid their student access fee and alumni who are current facility members, are eligible to participate in individual/dual sports as long as they have a valid APSU I.D.

Player's responsibilities

It is the responsibility of the participant to be informed of the rules governing the specific activities, as well as the time and place they will play their games. Players will be given rules at the information meeting (or receive them via e-mail). After the game, it is the participant's responsibility to make sure he/she turns in a final score sheet. It is suggested that all players report 15 minutes prior to their scheduled game start time.

† All participants' meetings will be held in the Foy Fitness and Recreation Center, Room 202.
