

Whereas, men and women of the United States armed forces have served our country in both peacetime and in war, bravely accepting risk of life and limb, and whereas, the defense of freedoms rests heavily on an educated electorate, be it resolved that the Faculty Senate of Austin Peay State University recommends to the Tennessee Board of Regents that said individuals having been honorably discharged be accorded in-state tuition rates irrespective of their legal residence at all Tennessee Board of Regents institutions and be it resolved that this be in force beginning January 1, 2009.