

The Classics Major

Majors in foreign languages at Austin Peay are all classified as receiving a Bachelor of Arts in Foreign Languages with a Specialization in the target language, e.g., Classics, or Greek. The following courses are required for the B.A. in Foreign Languages with a Specialization in Classics. The major consists of 30 hours of coursework. NB: Courses at APSU have four letter prefixes, followed by four digit numbers. The introductory level is 1010/1020.

Students must complete the following:

GREK 2010, 2020; LATN 2010, 2020;

Select three from any of the GREK or LATN 3000 or 4000 series courses.

Select three from the following courses:

Any of the CLAS series (you will find a full listing of these on the page that has descriptions of the Civilization courses), or:

GREK 1110 (Modern Greek)

ART 2010 (Introduction to Art History)

HIST 3300 (History of Ancient Greece)

HIST 3310 (History of Ancient Rome)

HIST 3480 (Early Middle Ages)

PHIL 3100 (Introduction to Ancient Philosophy).