

PROPOSED LANGUAGE PLACING THE APPEALS BOARD BEFORE THE PROVOST.
PROVOST'S VOTE NOW FOLLOWS THE UNIVERSITY TENURE AND PROMOTION
APPEALS BOARD. Updated January 23, 2011.

- a. ~~If there is at least one (1) affirmative college-level recommendation, will bring the dossier shall move forward for consideration by the Provost. When both college-level recommendations are negative, the faculty member may request that an appeal of those negative recommendations be heard by the University Tenure and Promotion Appeals Board (see Composition of University Tenure and Promotion Appeals Board below) an appeal may be made to the Provost for further consideration. One (1) affirmative college level recommendation will bring the dossier forward for consideration by the Provost.~~

- b. Such a request must be submitted in writing to the offices of the Provost ~~and the President~~ within seven (7) days of receiving written notice of the ~~Provost's recommendation. second of the two negative recommendations (i.e. Dean or college committee).~~

~~In the event of a negative recommendation by the Provost, the faculty member may request that an appeal of that recommendation be heard by the University Tenure and Promotion Appeals Board (see Composition of University Tenure and Promotion Appeals Board below).~~

- c. The ~~University Tenure and Promotion Appeals Board~~ shall examine ~~the appeal forwarded to the Board by the President or Provost~~ written documents submitted to it by the President and may, at its discretion, seek additional information from the candidate, the Provost, and other individuals who the Board believes may have information germane to its deliberations.
- d. ~~After the University Tenure and Promotion Appeals Board has deliberated on the faculty member's appeal, the faculty member's e-dossier shall be submitted to the Provost for review for informational purposes and must include the Board's recommendations to the Provost. The Provost will have a vote at this time. After the Provost has acted on the e-dossier, it shall move forward for consideration by the President.~~
- e. The ~~University Tenure and Promotion Appeals Board~~ shall make its recommendation to the ~~President~~ Provost in writing by the date established by the ~~President~~ by the Provost in the Calendar for Faculty Personnel Actions. The recommendations of the ~~University Tenure and Promotion Appeals Board~~ are advisory, and the President ~~and Provost~~ may accept or reject the recommendations of the Appeals Board in formulating ~~his/her~~ their decisions.