

APSU Women's Club
Minutes
October 13, 2011

In Attendance: Diane Sperry, Juliette Roake, Candace DeSantis, Marjorie Perrault, Theresa Everett, Tammy Cunningham, Rose Austin, Phyllis Whittaker, Carolyn Schinger

Program

Diane Sperry opened the meeting. Special interest sign-up sheets and program schedules were made available for anyone who was unable to attend the Fall Reception. A sign-up sheet for desserts, paper products and beverages was available for members to volunteer to bring items for future meetings.

G.H.O.S.T. (Great Halloween Options for Safe Trick or Treating) will be held on Sunday, October 30, 2011, from 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm. The Women's Club will be passing out bookmarks and candy. Volunteers are needed to donate candy and to sign up to work. Candy donations should be delivered to Joanne Shepard.

APSU Women's Soccer and the YMCA's After Breast Cancer outreach program are hosting a Let's Go Peaynk Soccer Game to promote breast cancer awareness. The game will be held on October 21, 2011 at 7:00 pm. Clarksville Breast Cancer Survivors will be in attendance.

The APSU Women's Club membership totals are down. Remind your friends to pay their fees before November 1st if they want their name to be printed in the directory. Members can join at any time of the year. If we do not bring our numbers up, it may be necessary to re-evaluate the scholarship.

Guest Speaker – Ryan Bowie, Roxy Regional Theatre

Ryan told us about his background as an actor and how he came to be at the Roxy Regional Theatre. The Roxy Regional Theatre is a professional theatre with paid actors from all around, especially New York City. He spoke about the history of the Roxy building and plans for future expansion. Ryan informed us of upcoming productions, the Christmas Over the Cumberland fundraiser event, discounts customers can receive at local downtown businesses by showing their Roxy tickets, and the discounted 10 pack of tickets. He spoke to us about his goal to rekindle the relationship between the Roxy and APSU. He asked if anyone had any ideas about how he could reconnect with the University. One member recommended he speak to Mike Dunn about incorporating a requirement into the APSU 1000 course curriculum. At the conclusion of the presentation, Ryan passed out invitations to the Christmas Over the Cumberland fundraiser, a Historic Downtown Discount Card and brochure, and a Season 29 production brochure.

The meeting adjourned at 1:00 pm.
