

Faculty Qualifications Matrix - HHP and PHED courses associated with Professional Services Applied Associates
APSU Course Rubric	Qualifying Credentials	Related Disciplines	Qualifications
HHP 2000-level courses	Qualifying credentials: Master's degree in health and human performance or master's degree in any discipline with at least 18 hours in health and human performance or related area		Master's degree in an area other than Health and Human Performance + health or physical education K-12 teaching license + 5 years of experience as a physical education or health teacher in the school system. GTA instructor of record: At least 18 graduate credit hours in health and human performance or related area. Must have a designated faculty supervisor in the teaching discipline, regular in-service training, and planned evaluations.
PHED 1310	Master's degree in health and human performance or master's degree in any discipline with at least 18 hours in health and human performance or related area		Bachelor's degree + evidence of expertise in the activity area, e.g., certified instructor; certification; award winning participation. GTA Instructor of Record: Master's degree in health and human performance or master's degree in any discipline with at least 18 hours in health and human performance or related area OR Bachelor's degree + evidence of expertise in the activity area, e.g., certified instructor; certification; award winning participation.