

Enhanced Peer Review of Teaching (EPRT) Timeline (Revised Sept. 13, 2023)

Faculty are required to begin Enhanced Peer Review of Teaching (EPRT) starting Fall 2023 semester to have the EPRT Reports in the E-Dossiers in Sept. 2024 onwards. Please see pages 14-17 of the RTP Procedures & Guidelines for more comprehensive Peer Evaluation instructions, including evaluator selection and determination of course modalities to be evaluated. Faculty who have Prior-Credit Years toward Tenure will need to follow the direction and number of evaluators recommended in the P&G Document for the review decision they are seeking.

Dossiers due September 2024	EPRT Evaluations in Academic Year 2023-2024
Retention for 3rd year	Fall 2023* EPRT required to occur (one evaluator, formative & summative) for placement in September 2024 dossier	Spring 2024* EPRT required to occur (one evaluator, formative & summative) for placement in September 2024 dossier
Retention for 4th & 5th years	Fall 2023 or Spring 2024 EPRT required to occur (two evaluators-same class, formative & summative) for placement in September 2024 dossier
Retention for 6th year, Tenure, & Promotion	Fall 2023 or Spring 2024 EPRT required to occur (two evaluators, two different classes summative) for placement in September 2024 dossier

* A different evaluator for each semester.