

Faculty Senate Rules Committee Report

The Faculty Senate Rules Committee has reviewed and unanimously approved the number of faculty senators in their designated academic units. Faculty numbers are supplied from Anthony Roark, the HR representative that works with faculty senate on the number of faculty currently employed by the university. APSU faculty senate bylaws indicate that academic units are given 1 faculty representative per 7 faculty (or major fraction thereof) that meet the definition of faculty in our Constitution. The Faculty Senate Rules Committee has determined the following representation and need for elections in the following areas:

3 Senators in CoB – 3 vacancies

12 Senators in CoBHS – 0 vacancies

15 Senators in CoAL – 10 vacancies

2 Senators in Admin/Lib – 1 vacancy

4 Senators in CoE – 1 vacancy

15 Senators in CoSTEM – 4 vacancies

1 Senator designated an Adjunct – 1 vacancy

Special thank you to the members of the Rules Committee Tim Winters, Marsha Lyle-Gonga, Pam Gray, and Tim Self for their work on Faculty Senate apportionment.

Sincerely,

Perry M. Scanlan Ph.D., MLS(ASCP)^{CM}
Rules Committee Chair
Faculty Senate Vice President
