- Dr. Michael Chandler, Director, is an associate professor of music and coordinator of music education at Austin Peay State University. Chandler taught elementary general music to children in Texas public schools for 16 years, where he was twice named Teacher of the Year. He has presented conference sessions and workshops in 39 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and Australia, including for numerous state MEA organizations. Chandler is an AOSA-approved Orff Schulwerk teacher educator for all three levels of Orff Schulwerk basic and recorder pedagogy. His publications have been featured in Update: Applications of Research in Music Education, The Orff Echo, The Southwestern Musician, and Orff-Schulwerk International. Chandler has worked as a contributing author for McGraw-Hill Educational Publishing and is often an invited guest conductor of elementary treble choirs across the United States.

- Victoria Wright is a student at APSU studying music therapy. At APSU, Wright participates in the APSU Wind Ensemble and Symphonic Bands and is a collaborative pianist for instrumentalists and vocalists during jury season. Beyond APSU, she teaches percussion to students at Clarksville High School and teaches private bassoon and piano lessons to students of varying ages. Wright also participates in the marching arts and is a world class marcher, participating in seasons with both Audio Theater and Music City Mystique.

- Morgan Sharp, Part I Section Leader, has been an elementary general music teacher in the Clarksville-Montgomery County School System since 2017, and is currently the elementary music teacher at Pisgah Elementary. Sharp has conducted children's choirs, church choirs, elementary and secondary public-school choirs, and collegiate choirs. She is an avid performer, and has recently sung with the Gateway Chamber Singers, Vox Grata Women's choir, and the Madison Street UMC Choir. An operatic soprano, Sharp has performed in productions with the Asheville Lyric Opera and the East Tennessee State University Opera workshop.

- Zachary Raphael, Part II Section Leader, is a native of the Philadelphia area and is currently a graduate student in music education working toward the Master of Music degree at Austin Peay State University. Growing up singing in the Keystone State Boychoir as well as playing the cello, Raphael has always held a deep appreciation for everything relating to music. Previously, he was a teaching artist with El Sistema Lehigh Valley, teaching orchestra, low strings, and choir to third- and twelfth-grade students after school. While at APSU, Raphael hopes to hone his musical and teaching skills as well as to share his passion for music with his students and the surrounding community. In addition to teaching and performing, Raphael is an experienced music administrator responsible for both chamber and large ensembles at the 2024 Sewanee Summer Music Festival in Tennessee. He has also worked in various roles with The Crossing, Cayuga Youth Orchestra, Piffero, Tempesta De Mare, Philadelphia Sinfonia, and The Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill.

The Clarksville Children's Chorus would like to thank the following entities, friends, and supporters: Austin Peay State University; the APSU Community School of the Arts and Kevin Loveland, CSA director; Dr. William 'Buzz' Hoon, dean of the APSU College of Arts & Letters; Dr. Korre Foster, chair of APSU's Department of Music; Mr. Joshua Keith, Mabry Concert Hall's technical director; Ben Torres, Cody Richardson, Perignon Espinosa & Sin Fronteras, and CCC chorister parents and caregivers!
