

APSU STUDENT HANDBOOK & CALENDAR

Use this link to access the student handbook & academic calendar.

STUDENT SUCCESS WEBSITE

Visit this website for a variety of support services designed to help all APSU students succeed.

THE ADULT NONTRADITIONAL & TRANSFER STUDENT CENTER (ANTS)

Eligibility: Any APSU Student
931-221-9854
antsc@apsu.edu
MUC Room 111

The ANTS Center is a dedicated space that supports transfer and nontraditional students through school counseling, programming, and other resources, including a computer lab, kitchenette, and lounge.

AFRICAN AMERICAN CULTURAL CENTER

Eligibility: Any APSU Student
931-221-7120
aacc@apsu.edu
Clement Hall, Room 120

The center provides an inclusive environment in which everyone can gain an appreciation for African American heritage and experience. The center also provides resources such as loaner calculators and laptops and offers curricular & co-curricular programs.

CAREER SUCCESS CENTER

Eligibility: Any APSU Student or Alumni
931-221-6544
careerservices@apsu.edu
Morgan University Center, Room 210
The office of career services focuses on career development, job search tools, and providing students assistance when transitioning from academia to the world of work.

DISABILITY STUDENT SUCCESS CENTER

Eligibility Information
931-221-6230
disabilityservices@apsu.edu
Morgan University Center, Room 114
The Office of Disability Services aims to ensure access for students with disabilities to all curricular and co-curricular opportunities offered by APSU.

DISTANCE EDUCATION

Eligibility: Any APSU Student
931-221-6625
online@apsu.edu
McReynolds Building, 2nd Floor
Distance Education manages digital learning technologies such as D2L. Contact the support desk at the phone or email listed above for help with instructional technologies.

FINANCIAL AID & SCHOLARSHIPS

Eligibility: Any APSU Student Meeting Federal or State Aid Criteria
931-221-7907
Ellington, Room 216
Financial Aid staff are available to assist with questions about initial and continuing financial aid eligibility. Dropping classes, changes in enrollment status, or taking classes outside of your program of study may affect eligibility, which may result in an account billing and/or future eligibility changes for aid or scholarships.

GOVSTECH

Eligibility: Any APSU Student
931-221-4357
govstech@apsu.edu
Morgan University Center, Info Desk
Govstech provides campus-wide and online support for technology resources. Reach out to the help desk at the number or email above for help with technical issues.

HEALTH & COUNSELING SERVICES

Eligibility: Any APSU Student
931-221-7107
Ard Building
The center offers integrated primary health care, personal counseling, health education, and wellness programs.

General Student Resources Continued...

LATINO COMMUNITY RESOURCE CENTER

Eligibility: Any APSU Student

931 221-6645

lcrc@apsu.edu

Morgan University Center, Room 115

The center provides an inclusive environment in which everyone can gather, learn, and celebrate Latino culture. The center also provides technology resources such as graphing calculators, computers, laptops, and a printer.

CENTER FOR ACADEMIC SUPPORT & ENRICHMENT

Eligibility: Any APSU Student

931-221-6550

learningctr@apsu.edu

Marks Building, Room 124

The center offers students peer tutoring in a variety of subjects. The center also has a structured learning assistance program, which provides workshops that emphasize lecture materials, learning styles, and general knowledge for academic success.

LIBRARY

Eligibility: Any APSU student, general public

931-221-7346

Felix G. Woodward Library

The library supports the university and surrounding community in research, technologies, and other academic resources.

NEWTON MILITARY FAMILY RESOURCE CENTER

Eligibility: Any veterans, active duty, reservist, national guardsmen, retirees, ROTC

students, and family members who attend APSU

931-221-1685

msc@apsu.edu

Morgan University Center, Room 120

The center provides a computer lab, lounge/dining area, and a variety of programs for this population of students.

MILLER SGA LOAN APPLICATION

Eligibility: Any APSU student

The Miller/SGA Emergency Loan Fund is designed to provide students currently enrolled at Austin Peay State University access to emergency aid when needed. The loan application and other criteria can be found on the website.

S.O.S. FOOD PANTRY

Eligibility: Any APSU student

931-221-6120

sos@apsu.edu

322 Home Avenue

The S.O.S. Food Pantry supports Austin Peay State University's students through troubling times by helping fight hunger. The campus community supports and supplies the food pantry through donations. Students who find themselves in need can stop by once per week during hours of operation.

TRIO STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

Eligibility Information

931-221-6142

trioss@apsu.edu

Ellington, Room 337

The TRIO SSS provides program participants individualized academic services, including one-to-one tutoring, academic coaching, financial literacy, and more. TRIO SSS students also have the opportunity to participate in a variety of cultural and academic enrichment activities both on and off campus.

WRITING CENTER

Eligibility: Any APSU student

931-221-6559

writinglab@apsu.edu

Felix G. Woodward Library

The center offers APSU students free help with writing at any stage of the writing process. Students may receive assistance in person or online. Appointments can be scheduled on the website, but walk-ins are also accepted.