

Examity Special Instructions

Special Instructions allow an instructor to leave specific notes per exam for the proctor and/or test-taker. It is recommended that special instructions be concise, short, and categorized. While an instructor can list anything in the Special Instructions field, below is a list of common ones seen by Examity.

Allowed Items

- ALLOWED ITEMS: You are allowed to have a drink on your desk.

Breaks

- BREAKS: You can stand up to stretch at any point in the exam as long as you remain in webcam view.
- BREAKS: You must click (“add text here”) to start a break session if you plan to leave webcam view.
- BREAKS: You are allowed to take a bathroom break.

Pre-Exam

- PRE-EXAM: Grammarly must be turned off on all browsers before starting the exam.
- PRE-EXAM: All language translation tools must be turned off on the Chrome browser before starting the exam.

Task Manager

- TASK MANAGER: You MUST show the proctor that no other software or applications are running. Please end all tasks not related to the exam.

Room Pan

Examity utilizes room scans/pans. It is recommended you make a note about this in the Special Instructions field as students will be able to see this information as a reminder when they schedule/start exams.

- ROOM PAN: You MUST complete a 360-degree room and desk pan with your webcam including the area underneath the computer monitor, laptop, keyboard, and mouse. A mirror may be used to show the computer screen if an external webcam is not being used.

Testing Behavior

- TESTING BEHAVIOR: You are not allowed to copy and paste the results of your exam. If you do, it will be considered cheating.
- TESTING BEHAVIOR: If at any time you witness the test-taker taking notes of the material, or highlighting material to copy and save, please instruct the test-taker to destroy it. Instruct them to tear up the scrap paper, or clear the information from their clipboard.

Disconnections

- DISCONNECTION: If you are disconnected from the session for any reason, please check for a disconnection email that contains instructions on how to connect. You must NOT continue with the exam if you are disconnected from the proctor. If you are unable to reconnect, contact Examity Support and we will assist you with the next steps.

Distance Education

Post-Exam

- POST EXAM: You must clear the whiteboard in the presence of the proctor before leaving the exam session.
- POST EXAM: You must tear up the scrap paper in the presence of the proctor before leaving the exam session.
- POST EXAM: You must verify that you have not copied any text from the exam by pasting in a blank Word document or notepad.
