

Student Code of Conduct

POLICIES

Issued: March 30, 2017

Responsible Official: Vice President for Student Affairs

Responsible Office: Office of Student Affairs

Policy Statement

Anyone who enrolls at APSU is entitled to all rights granted to him/her by the Constitution of the United States and is entitled to the full protection of the law. Apart from those rights and duties enjoyed by non-students, enrollment in the University carries with it special privileges and imposes special responsibilities. The University has established regulations and certain due process procedures essential to an atmosphere of mutual respect that is sensitive to rights of all individuals.

The Code of Student Conduct is published annually in the APSU Student Handbook and can be accessed at the following website:

<http://www.apsu.edu/student-affairs/judicial1>

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to provide Austin Peay State University students with a comprehensive document that explains their rights and responsibilities and to provide students with established regulations which articulate due process procedures.
