

Austin Peay State University

Research and Scholarly Activities

POLICIES

Issued: March 8, 2017

Responsible Provost and Vice President for Academic

Official: Affairs

Responsible Office: Office of Research and Sponsored Programs

Policy Statement

All University employees engaged in activities considered research and/or scholarly must adhere to University policies and State and Federal laws.

Purpose

The intent of the policy is to bring awareness and guidance to University employees engaged in activities that are considered research and/or scholarly. When used correctly, this policy should empower University employees in a collection of best practices that maximize efforts and limits unintended consequences that may otherwise place the employee and the University at legal-risk with external agencies.

Contents

Procedures

- General Guidelines and Policies
 - External Funding Support Policies
-

Procedures

APSU employees engaged in activities that are considered research and/or scholarly must review the following standards and policies in support of the mission of the University.

General Guidelines and Policies

- All research and scholarly activities must abide by an ethical code of conduct that does not unfairly treat or marginalize people based on race, color, religion, creed, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, disability, age, status as a protected veteran, genetic information, or any other legally protected class.

- All research and scholarly activities must abide by an ethical code of conduct that does not intentionally mislead the community or misrepresent data or findings. Please review Policy 2:019 Misconduct in Research and Other Creative Activities.
- All research and scholarly activities must abide by an ethical code of conduct that maintains high standards of behavior with working with human subjects. Please review Policy 2:002 Research (Faculty, Staff and/or Student) Involving Human Subjects.
- All research and scholarly activities must abide by an ethical code of conduct that maintains high standards of behavior with working with animals. Please review Policy 2:007 Research Involving Animals.

External Funding Support Policies

University employees awarded funding should review and thoroughly understand the following policies as they pertain to many aspects of the University and these policies tend to have State and Federal legal ramifications.

- University employees seeking external funding should review and thoroughly understand Policy 2:056 Grant Proposal, Application Preparation, and Award.
- University employees having earned an external grant should review and thoroughly understand Policy 2:057 Grants Award/Declination and Policy 2:058 Grants Management: Budgeting, Spending, & Responsibilities.
- University employees reporting time and efforts for grant-sponsored activities should review and thoroughly understand Policy 2:061 Time and Effort Reporting for Grant-sponsored Activities.

Failure to understand and follow these policies could place the University employee and the University into violation of State and Federal laws.

Revision Dates

APSU Policy 2:055 – Issued: March 8, 2017

Subject Areas:

Academic	Finance	General	Human Resources	Information Technology	Student Affairs
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

Approved

President: signature on file
