

Cidnie Sydney-Brewington
the coopers

i saw them today hug each other tight and kiss a hello and walk side by side to where she was sitting as she got there first and walked toward him (smiling) to meet him (he came late)

and they looked happy walking together
he looked happy
she looked happy they missed each other and their eyes smiled to see each other and their eyes said to the other “please come in my space | i want you there”
