

Angel
Carol Lyn Wolf

The angel who held my hand at the doctor's office
MY angel that provided for my sister and I
The angel who was the only one there at the time
My angel who worked three jobs to make ends meet
The angel who picked me up and dusted me off all through all the tears and let downs
My angel who stood beside me at my wedding
The angel who stood beside me through it all
My angel who was always proud no matter how disappointing I thought I was God will I ever be able to fill my angel's shoes?
As a wonderful friend and mother
Who is my angel?
Only my angel knows...

~~Buried Inside me~~
Carol lyn Wolf

I can't believe I'm still trying
Inside I am dying
Make me a bird
So I can fly far far away
Does this look like a game
I'm not playing
With your coy smile
And your fake lies
Buried inside me
A young innocent girl
Nice as can be
Somewhere she was lost
And instead you get me
Shadowed in the dark
In a dark cage
A shy bird wants to be let free
Why can't you just let me be me
You don't see me
All the things I hide
Are you the one to confide
My moment was taken from me
Don't you see what you have left me
Sorrow, pain and regret
Buried inside me.
